Enrollment

I am the parent or legal guardian of the camper(s) listed on this form (the "Camper"). I am enrolling the Camper in the camp program operated by for the session(s) I have booked (the "Camp"). I have read the Camp's information about its schedule, activities, what to bring and its policies.

Camp Activities and Risks

I understand that the Camp may include activities such as outdoor games, team sports, hiking, nature exploration, swimming and water play, arts and crafts, cooking, science experiments, dance, drama, archery, climbing, boating, campfires and overnight stays, as well as field trips. I understand that these activities involve inherent risks, including:

- falls, collisions, sprains, fractures, cuts, bruises and head injuries;
- drowning or near drowning during swimming and water activities;
- sunburn, heat exhaustion, dehydration and weather-related events such as lightning;
- insect bites and stings, tick-borne illness, poisonous plants and contact with animals;
- burns from campfires, cooking or craft tools, and injuries from equipment such as scissors, hot glue guns or archery equipment;
- allergic reactions to food, plants, insects or materials;
- illness spread among campers in close quarters; and
- homesickness, emotional upset and conflicts with other campers.

Swimming

I understand that campers may be asked to take a swim test, and that the Camper will be assigned to swimming areas and activities based on their ability. The Camper must follow lifeguard and counselor instructions and wear a life jacket when required.

Field Trips and Transportation

I consent to the Camper taking part in field trips and being transported by vehicles operated or arranged by , such as buses, vans or charter services, and walking with counselors to nearby locations. will tell me in advance about off-site trips.
